TEN PAGES—THREE CENTS

DOES NOT REMEMBER HAVING FIRED SHOTS

Mrs. De Saulles' Mind a Blank Regarding Husband's Death

Defendant in Murder Trial at Mineola, N. Y., Takes Witness Stand in Own Defense.

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Blanca DeSaulles, drawing to the close of a dramatic story of events of her life that culminated in her killing her husband John L. DeSaulles, today told the jury that she does not remember having fired the fatal shots.

When on the night of August 3, last, she went to DeSaulles' home to get, she said, her son Jack, the custody of whom was in dispute between them, DeSaulles told her, she testified, "you can't have him."

"I felt stunned then. Something was wrong with my head," she said, speaking with faltering voice. "That is all I remember," she said.

In contradiction to the claim of the prosecution that Mrs. DeSaulles went to her former husband's home, deliberately to kill him, the defendant was emphatic in her testimony that her sole intention when she went there was to get her little son.

On the story told by Mrs. DeSaulles may depend her conviction or acquittal. There were moments when the pale, 23-year-old Chilean belle smiled at her own story and spectators laughed so loudly it was necessary for Justice Manning to rap for order but most of the story was so pathetic jurors and spectators were visibly affected.

It was a recital in which scenes were rapidly shifted. The first was a luxurious estate in Chile—Vina Del Mar, the vineyard by the sea, where the defendant spent her childhood. Then followed a reference to three years in a convent in England. Then was the return to her Chilean home and her acquaintance with DeSaulles, fresh from laurels won as a football star at Yale.

Then the witness told of her brief courtship and the wedding ceremony performed in Paris in 1911.

From this point the story was one of domestic infidelity and unfaithfulness on the part of the husband which eventually led to the divorce court. These years of unhappiness for the defendant were described as "a horrible nightmare" in one of the several letters written by Mrs. DeSaulles as read to the court and which in interspersed her testimony. Next came the climax of the narrative, Mrs. DeSaulles' account of the tragedy at the "box," her former husband's home near Westbury, L. I., the night she failed in her endeavor to obtain possession of her son, and in a moment of mental irresponsibility, according to her claim fired the revolver shots.

Mrs. DeSaulles' replies to her attorney's questions were in such tones they were scarcely audible to the jury. At the court's suggestion she told much of the story without questioning.

The witness said that early on August 3, her former husband telephoned to her asking that she send "Little Jack" over to "The Box." She said the boy's grandfather was going to spend the day there. She said DeSaulles promised to return the boy early that evening.

"When he did not come, I waited anxiously and finally giving up hope of the promise being kept, I said to myself to go and get him," she testified. She called DeSaulles and told he was not at home, whereupon she called a friend of the family and asked him to go with her in an effort to secure the boy. When he refused on the ground that it concerned a "delicate matter" Mrs. DeSaulles said she called a taxi-cab, intending to go to "The Box." There was a pause and finally the witness said in a weary tone:

"I don't remember much more."

With the court's permission, Mr. Terhart led the witness with questions which apparently served to refresh her memory to a degree. The completion of the story came in a hesitating rather disconnected manner.

Mrs. DeSaulles said she remembered calling the garage owner twice and insisting that they hurry a taxi-cab to her home; that when she reached the place where her boy was, she entered and presently found herself facing DeSaulles.

"I said, 'I've come to take Jack home with me,'" she said, Mrs. DeSaulles. "He looked at me and said 'you can't have him.' There was a pause, then the witness said:

"I still seem to hear those words."

After another silence longer than the first, Mrs. DeSaulles added that she felt stunned then. "Something was wrong with my head."

These words came in a faltering voice and spaced with intervals during which the witness seemed to be striving to recall something.

Finally she said:

"That is all I remember."

There was another silence, then Justice Manning asked:

"When did you regain your senses?"

"The next I knew was when I found Mrs. Seaman at my side," was the reply.

Mrs. Seaman is the wife of Sheriff Phineas Seaman.

Her story ended, Justice Manning told Mrs. DeSaulles she might leave the court room and adjourned the trial until tomorrow.

There was no reference, through the five hour recital, to "hypothecation" the thyroid condition which her attorneys say was partly responsible for her temporary mental derangement.

Mrs. DeSaulles' story having been told, there remain to be examined several other witnesses on behalf of

ROOSEVELT ADVOCATES UNIVERSAL TRAINING

Best Means of Maintaining Permanent Peace

Colonel Thinks Universal Military Service Should Go Hand in Hand With Universal Suffrage—Pays Tribute to Accomplishments of Canadians.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 26.—Universal military training was advocated by Theodore Roosevelt tonight as the best means of maintaining permanent peace.

"As regards certain nations," he said, "I am sure that it will prove entirely possible both to provide for permanent peace among them and also to provide for common and disinterested action within definite limits to secure a betterment of general international conditions to diminish the likelihood of future wars and to restrict their limits if they break out."

"As regards some nations I question whether as yet we can trust the future solely to even the most carefully devised treaties—lest in any real emergency we suddenly discover that they are regarded merely as scraps of paper. Therefore on the general matter of securing lasting international peace I feel that probably our action ought to be two fold. We ought with entire sincerity to take every step which makes it likely that thereby the chances of future will be minimized."

"But we should treat this action as an indication to and not as a substitute for preparing in advance to guard our safety by our trained strength. Inasmuch as the first duty of a nation is self-defense let us insist that, in our democracies universal suffrage shall go hand in hand with universal service."

Colonel Roosevelt declared that what had been accomplished by the Canadians and by their sister colonies was without a parallel.

CAVALRYMEN OUTWIT GERMAN OFFICERS

Canadians Have Many Thrilling Experiences

Stories of Charges Against Enemy Batteries and Infantry Position in Cambrai Region are Innumerable.

British Headquarters in France, Sunday, Nov. 25.—By The Associated Press.—The British Cavalry have had many thrilling experiences since the battle began in the Cambrai sector last Tuesday and opened a way for them into the great territory over which they have roamed almost at will searching adventures like the knights of old.

Stories of their gallant charges with drawn sabres against enemy batteries and strong infantry positions have been innumerable. But perhaps none of them had a more exciting time than a squadron of Canadian horsemen who took their way northeast of Masnières after the smashing of the Hindenberg line. They swept out of Masnières on their chargers with their sabres clanking against their trappings. They returned aloft and thereby hangs a tale.

For considerable distance the horsemen cantered along without encountering an enemy. East of Rumilly they came upon several British tanks which had run almost into a German battery position and were being fired at by great guns. The monitors were in a tight place and needed assistance badly. They got it. The cavalry came pounding up in columns of four and their leader sizing up the situation sent them swerving in on either side of the battery. Then they charged in straight among the gun crews, their sabres flashing. It was over in a moment and the last enemy lay trampled upon.

This incident finished, the cavalry trotted off in search of other adventures. Not far away was a sunken road which concealed considerable enemy forces armed with machine guns, cavalry scouts discovered this trap and dashing back, gave the word to the commander. The latter snapped out a command and the squadron most of whom were still unaware of the presence of the sunken road, divided into two bodies, one of which deployed to the right toward a break in the wall of the road while the other drew their sabres and charged straight ahead.

The Germans not knowing British cavalry was operating in the section remained in the ditch and the Canadians reached the edge without seeing the enemy. They saw them then in numbers, and realized they were headed for a drop of several feet to the level of the road.

Not a horseman hesitated. They took the flying leap straight down amongst the surprised Germans and began their work of death. Half a hundred of the enemy lay dead when the remainder fled toward Rumilly.

The cavalry commander then was out of touch with the remainder of the advancing British forces and decided to remain in the sunken road until he could get orders. Accordingly he sent a courier with information of the location of the squad. It developed quickly that another force of German machine gunners was stationed in a commanding position nearby. These opened a grilling fire on the cavalry and succeeded in killing several horses within short time. It became apparent that the men and the rest of the horses must suffer the same fate if they remained where they were. The commander knew it would be suicide to ride into the open and he seized upon an ingenious plan to outwit the Germans. The horses were stampered with their empty saddles in the direction of Cambrai. The ruse worked for the Germans, peering thru the mist, thought the horsemen escaped. The machine guns came into action against the galloping horses and the troopers meantime made good their escape from the road. They started back but losing their way at one time were actually in the outskirts of Rumilly. This might have given rise to the report that became current that the British had occupied the village. The Canadians continued their journey toward what they thought were the British lines. As they were proceeding they were challenged by a German officer with nine men. It happened that among the troopers was a chap who spoke German fluently. He was sent forward with orders to engage the officer in conversation until the rest of the troopers could close in with their sabres. The little emissary fulfilled his mission by engrossing the attention of the officer with a cock and bull story to which the German listened because he did not know that the British cavalry was in his zone. He listened a moment too long however, for the Canadians rushed in and killed the men accompanying him and the enemy officer. The latter was taken prisoner and compelled to conduct the horsemen back to their own lines.

CHIEF SURGEON OF U. S. ARMY IN FRANCE DEAD

Paris, Nov. 26.—Dr. Ami Jacques Magnin, chief surgeon of the American hospital at Nully, died Sunday night.

War News Summarized

Apparently the peril of the Italian troops guarding the Piave line and the hill country in northern Italy against the Teutonic allies is at an end. Large numbers of British and French reinforcements—infantry and artillery—at last have arrived upon the scene after days of anxious waiting in which the Italians have borne the brunt of the terrific fighting on both fronts solely on their own shoulders and kept back the enemy from a further invasion of the Venetian plain.

Altho faced everywhere by superior numbers of men and guns the Italians have valiantly defended every foot of ground in the hills and along the Piave and in the former region in recent days actually have taken the offensive against the invaders and pushed them back from strategic points of vantage they had gained under the terrific sacrifice in lives.

For eight days the allied reinforcements marched to the rescue, bringing along with them large numbers of guns and huge supply trains.

All the troops are declared to be in fine fettle and eager to test their strength against the enemy.

Just where the British and French forces will be thrown into the fray has not been made known but doubtless large numbers of them will be used to strengthen the Italian front on the north from Lake Garda east to the Piave where the Austro-Germans have been making their strongest efforts to pierce the Italian line.

At last accounts General Byng's British troops before Cambrai were holding in their entirety the Bourlon positions west of Cambrai. Since their repulse of Sunday the Germans had failed to renew their counterattacks. Only minor operations have taken place on any sector of the front where Byng's men last week carried out their Hindenburg line.

Along the Chemin-des-Dames and in the Verdun region violent artillery duels are in progress between the French and the Germans. In the latter sector the Germans several times essayed attacks with the purpose of recapturing ground taken from them Sunday but met with repulse. This ground which is situated to the north of the famous hill 344 for the possession of which so many sanguinary battles have been fought is in the process of consolidation of General Petain's men.

Daily the operations of the British having for their purpose the investment of Jerusalem are being forced forward. Southwest and west of the city British cavalry have taken respectively Butir Station and Ain-Karim, six miles and three miles, and a half miles from the city gates. Just outside the city to the west and to the north strong contingents of Turks are assembled to oppose a further advance. To the northeast on the Mediterranean coast advanced patrols have been forced to give ground to the Turkish attack.

DETAILS OF CAPTURE OF GERMAN CREW

Teutons Fill Submarine with Water Before Leaving It

Prisoners Are Given Hot Coffee and Dry Clothing After Rescue By U. S. Destroyer.

Base of the American Fotilla in British Waters Nov. 25.—By The Associated Press.—It is permissible to give the details of the capture by Americans of the entire crew of a U-boat that was sunk by depth charges. The explosives had disabled the U-boat and forced it down, bumping along the bottom of the sea striking terror to the hearts of the crew. Then the commander in order to lighten her, emptied the tanks.

To the great relief of the crew the U-boat responded and arose to the surface with such a push that some of the Germans were thrown about and injured. The U-boat appeared on the surface within several hundred feet of an American destroyer. The submarine's hatch flew open and the Germans scramble out of the conning tower, coatless and shoeless, ready to swim for it. They lined up along the narrow deck with hands in the air, shouting:

"Kamerad!"

The U-boat remained stationary and the destroyer moved up closely and heaved a line, which the Germans made fast. This was no sooner done that it became apparent that the crew had succeeded in opening the sea cocks, for the submarine began to settle, at first slowly, then more rapidly. As she did so the Germans leaped into the water and swam toward the destroyer. Some of the American sailors jumped into the sea to rescue the injured.

As the last German was lifted aboard the destroyer the hawser attached to the U-boat parted under the strain and the U-boat disappeared.

The Germans were given hot coffee and otherwise made comfortable for the run to the base. But one of their number, a machinist, had suffered greatly from shock and exposure and died on the way. He was buried with full military honors from deck of the destroyer the commander officiating at was the first funeral service held in this war on an American destroyer.

When the destroyer reached her base the prisoners were almost wholly clad in American naval outfits. They appeared especially fresh of the American shoes which were the first they had ever worn.

A WOMAN'S WAR.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman of the women's committee of the national council of defense terms the war a woman's war, man-made in Germany. She declared the greatest proof of patriotism in women was the fact that they gave their sons for war. Doctor Shaw urged a smokeless Friday for men at home and that they send the tobacco so saved to the men in the field. A message to America's men in the service was drafted and will be sent to various units Christmas. It is as follows: "The women of America are with you in spirit and in service. You are our standard bearers and our hope. We love you, believe in you and pray for you this Christmas morn."

THE HYPHENATED AMERICAN.

In a pamphlet entitled "Prussian-ized Germany," Otto H. Kahn, of New York, speaking as one "linked with the old Germany by ties of blood, by fond memories and cherished sentiments" tells very tersely and emphatically the duty of the present hour.

"He who shirks the full measure of his duty and allegiance in that noblest of causes, be he German-American, Irish-American, or any other hyphenated America, be he
I. W. W. or Socialist or whatever the appellation, does not deserve to stand amongst Americans or, indeed amongst free men anywhere.

"He who, secretly or overtly, tries to thwart the declared will and aim of the Nation in this holy war is a traitor, and a traitor's fate should be his."

THREE CENT STAMPS.

The three cent stamp is lavender;
my aunt admires the hue, altho it nearly spavined her, surrendering the two. Its back has costly mudi-age, and that will make it stick; I find it, in this crucial age, a tasty thing to lick. I'm tired of licking travelers who'd sell me books and lamps, and darners, knitters, ravelers—I'd rather lick some stamps.
The three cent stamp is beautiful, much smoother than the two; I feel I'm acting dutiful when I buy up a few. I send my junk to editors with stamps that please the eye, and stand-off notes to creditors which make them shed a sigh. The two cent stamp was hideous, it broke the highbrow's heart; it had effect insidious upon our native art. From vandals and barbarians its hue was handed down; for red is for vulgarians who like to paint the town.
But lavender's luxurious, a tint for the elect, and it will make us furious to quit it, I expect.

he retired from active life and has

DR. COLE WRITES ABOUT THRILLING SCENES

Young American Physician With the Army in France as Been Eye Witness to Important Events—French Lure German Aviators to Close Quarters and then Effect Capture.

In a recent letter to his mother and sister, Dr. Philip Cole who is with the American expeditionary forces in France, writes of some very interesting experiences he has recently gone thru. Dr. Cole tells of being in a city which was under fire and of the marvelous capture of a German Zeppelin. The letter was forwarded here to Dr. Cole's grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Gilett at the State School for the Deaf. The letter which is unusually interesting even in these days when there are many letters from soldiers follows:
My dear Mother and Alma:

I am writing this note by candle light in another Field Hospital on the last lap of the trip that I wrote you a week or so ago I was about to start on. Tomorrow I think we will be back "home" again and I will have finished what will probably be one of the most interesting times that I shall ever have over here. I am not so sure about that either for each week seems to bring something new and something more interesting than the week before.

In a City Under Fire.
This time anyway I witnessed one of the biggest events of the war, one which has never happened before and probably never will again. Also I have dined with two generals (in different places). I have been into a beautiful city which is under fire.
I have been thru a bomb raid in another city, and I have seen parts of the line and departments of our army which otherwise I never could have seen.

To begin with I did not actually witness the capture of a Zeppelin but I got there very shortly afterward. It seems that seven Zeppels on their return from a raid over London were first blown out of their course in a storm and then turned down by the French so that they thought they were over Switzerland and four of them captured. "Mine" was the only one ever captured infact. Two French aviators chased it and managed to shoot its petrol tank so that it had to come down.

Then, as it came down they flew along the side of it, lighting a machine gun fight as they lowered and finally when the Zeppelin landed on a lot of pine trees on the side of a hill near the road where we were traveling, the aviators ploughed their machines also into the trees and most miraculously landed and captured the Boche crew as they were landing.
They were a crew of 20 men—18 sailors and 2 officers—they tried to fire the Zeppelin but the aviators and one man who was out hunting covered them and prevented them.

Thru a German Zep.
I had a rare opportunity of going thru the Zep (L49) and examining
it. Also got some good souvenirs of it. I enclose with this a little piece of the silk cover. It was a huge affair, all black except the top, which was camouflaged white, had L49 painted on it in white—also a big iron cross or a maltese cross.

The indicator showed that it had attained an altitude of five miles, which is going some. The men's faces were badly frost bitten. It is practically intact only slightly buckled and a monster for size.

How was that for an experience?
You probably have read of it already and will certainly see pictures of it.

Tomorrow we finish our work and reach "home." Any place where one lives long enough gets to seem like home you know. It seems strange to sleep where a different sounding kind of guns are booming than the kind we have grown used to—at a distance of course.

I have much that is of interest that I could tell you but dare not by letter. I am however keeping a diary and will have most everything in that. I feel sure that I will find letters from you when I get back. I hope so—for it has been a couple of weeks since I have heard.

I am of course well and expect to get fat thru the winter. You wouldn't know your son and brother with steel helmet covering a clipped head, with boots and spurs and gas mask.

Please do not try to send me anything bulky to carry around for Christmas. Some fudge would taste pretty good, a pair of ear covers would be acceptable. I doubt if I can send anything.

I must ring off. This light tires
my eyes.
Remember me to everybody and be sure that best love goes with this letter. As always,
Your affectionate son and brother,
Philip.

WOULD STOP MAIL DELIVERIES.

The patrons on Route 6 out of Lewistown have suffered a discontinuance of a part of the route affecting some eight or ten families and those affected say: "If a thing is worth doing at all it is worth doing well" and will send in a petition to Washington to have the entire route cut out, as we are told to save, conserve, economize on food and on luxuries. The mail system is a luxury and people are willing to have R. F. D. stopped and let the mail men go to war to defend our country and use their salaries to finance the war. All in favor say aye—contrary, no. The ayes have it. In fact, all city and rural deliveries should be stopped for the peddler of the war as people are willing to do their bit and go to town of their mail as in former times.—Mound

Pastor Gave Complimentary Supper.

A complimentary supper was given at Central Christian church Monday evening by the pastor, Rev. Myron L.
Pontius, and the Sunday school superintendent, Mr. Clarence L. DePew.
The affair was in the nature of a rabbit supper and about forty teachers and officers of the church were present. After the supper Miss Louise Reed, of the Illinois Woman's college, gave a reading which was much enjoyed. Dr. Wolcott, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., here in connection with the meeting of the older boys' conference, was among the number present and gave a most interesting address on the work in which he is engaged. The gathering was held for the purpose of getting the teachers and officers together to discuss future Sunday school work and devote further consideration to getting ready for the Y. M. C. A. visitors the latter part of the week.

Next Sunday every one who is acting as host or hostess to any of the visitors is urged to attend Sunday school and church, bringing the guests along. A large attendance is expected next Sunday and for this reason the regular Sunday school hour has been changed to 9-15 o'clock. This will enable the Sunday school to give their special program of music before the regular church hour. A number of students from the colleges of the city will be present and take part in the program.

fully decorated, the color scheme being red and white. The guest of honor received many handsome and useful presents which were brought

The snow which fell Monday morn-hard on growing wheat as the ground has been so dry that germination has been slow. Rain is greatly needed both in city and county for water supply. Many wells in the country are dry and very few streams are

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the Litterberry Baptist Mission circle has been postponed from Nov. 30th to Dec. 7th, one week.

FIRST ANNUAL THANK OFFERING

Was Observed at the First Baptist Church Sunday—Offering of Over $800 Received Toward New Sunday School Building—Was Raised Through Efforts of Sunday School Classes and Church Departments.

First of Annual Thank Offering Days was observed at First Baptist church Sunday. This service was inaugurated several months ago for the purpose of raising a fund for the erection of a modern Sunday school building.

Each class of the Sunday school and department of the church has been busy during the past three months earning money in various ways to be presented at Sunday's service. The Sunday school assembled in departments as usual at 9:30.

After a brief opening exercise and the lesson period the department of the school assembled in the church auditorium where an inspiring song service was held. Scripture was read by Deacon Jerry Cox and prayer was offered by Deacon James Stout. Miss Etta Massey then rendered a beautiful vocal solo using the words of "Rock of Ages" which were given a very beautiful musical setting.

The announcements were made by L. B. Turner after which the choir sang an appropriate anthem.

The pastor, Rev. A. A. Todd then preached from the text found in Haggai 1-8, the theme of his discourse being "Building for God." The sermon was a masterful effort and left a profound impression on the hearers.

Superintendent Carl H. Weber next called the roll of Sunday school classes and Departments of the church and as the names were called a representative from each advanced to the pulpit with an envelope containing the offering and announced the total amount raised by the class or department and how the same was earned.

The amounts were recorded on a large blackboard as announced. Opportunity was then given for a free will offering to be made by the congregation and when the totals were cast it was found that the sum raised was nearly $860.

Superintendent Weber then presented the offering to Mr. Joseph Jackson, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the church with an admonition to keep it safely invested and to add the interest to the principal as collected.

Mr. Jackson responded in fitting words and after a song by the congregation Rev. Nicholson pronounced the invocation and the service was concluded amid general rejoicing. The officers of the church and Sunday school are especially gratified with the showing made in so short a time and especially as no strong effort was made to raise a large amount this year owing to war conditions.

LIEUT. PERIGORD WILL BE HERE SATURDAY

Will Speak at Court House Saturday Evening—Just from Trenches in France—Is Speaker of Great Magnetism.

The local committee of the State Council of Defense is in receipt of a communication from Hon. Harold L. Ickes of Chicago, chairman of the state council, in which Mr. Ickes announces that Lieutenant Paul Perigord of the French army has been assigned to Jacksonville for a public lecture Saturday evening, Dec. 1st.

Lieutenant Perigord has just reached this country from the front, having left the trenches less than seven weeks ago and has been brought to this country for the purpose of training the soldiers of Uncle Sam's new National Army.

Before entering upon his duties in the cantonments the speaking committee of the U. S. Department of Publicity has secured Lieut. Perigord for a brief speaking tour of the larger cities of the central west.

The splendid showing made by Jacksonville in the Red Cross and Army Y. M. C. A. work has no doubt aided naturally in inducing the Department to send this magnetic speaker to a city of this size.

The local committee are highly elated over the prospects of Lieut. Perigord's visit and have made arrangements for the lecture at the Court House. Extra chairs will be provided for the occasion and although a large crowd can be thus accommodated many will doubtless be turned away for lack of room.

The lecture will of course be free to the public and all are invited.

Good seats at Elk's Jollies tonight.

THE PIPE LINE REMOVAL WORK

The Journal is in receipt of a letter from William Mockler, who had the contract for the removal of pipe line of the Jacksonville Water Co., for the Chicago House Wrecking Co., Mr. Mockler removed all of the pipe between the pumping station west of Bluffs thru the streets of Bluffs and along the right of way in Scott county to a point a mile and a half east of Neelyville. He states that the highway commissioners of both Scott and Morgan county will attest that he left the roads in good condition and that between Neelyville and Bluffs there is hardly a depression to show where the pipe was removed.

The statement in Sunday's Journal referred to the fact that an injunction was being sought to prevent the removal of the pipe in the roadway in district No. 6 in Morgan county. It was stated that it was "alleged" that removal of pipe in the roadway in to bad condition. There was no intention to make any comment on any work done by Mr. Mockler, the statement simply referring to allegation made in the bill filed asking for the injunction.

How Women are Restored to Health

Spartanburg, S.C.—"For nine years I suffered from backache, weakness, and irregularities so I could hardly do my work. I tried many remedies but found no permanent relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great change for the better and am now well and strong so I have no trouble in doing my work. I hope every user of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will get as great relief as I did from its use."—Mrs. S. D. McANEE, 122 Dewey Ave., Spartanburg, S.C.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. ELKS JOLLIES OF 1918 GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

Performance Most Ambitious Ever Attempted—Songs Were New and Catchy—Hau Not Grown Whiskers—Final Scene Fine Example of Patriotism—Will Be Repeated Tonight.

The Elks Jollies of 1918 was the most ambitious effort that the lodge has ever attempted. The program said it was "A Minstrel, Vaudeville, Musical, Comedy Oddity in two acts and eight scenes." It was full of that and more. It certainly was a performance full of "pep" from start to finish and all of the participants acquitted themselves with great credit.

The production was given under the direction of the Joe Bren Production company of Chicago with Ross Harvey in personal charge of the rehearsals and production. Special scenery for the performance was painted for Bren by the Sossman-Landis studios of Chicago and the New York Costumes company of Chicago furnished the costumes.

When the curtain went up on the first part is showed the lobby of the Orange Grove Inn. Somewhere in California. There was lots of good comedy, bright lines and good songs in this scene with Paul Watkins as the hotel clerk, Moe Meyer as the complainant, H. P. Samuels as the hotel manager, E. E. Crabtree as Dew Lockstader the minstrel king and F. E. Farrell as the David Lebasco, the theatrical magnate. They were assisted by the following:

Bel boys—Dick Reynolds, Harold Dunlap, Byron Carpenter and Charlie Joy.

Tourists—Moe Meyer, Harry Cain, Claude Cully and Louis Cain. The opening chorus was sung by the Bel boys, Taxi drivers and tourists. The next number was "The Little Tip" by the Bel boys and Taxi drivers.

Scene two introducing the minstrels was opened with a song and dance, "The Rest Is Up To You," which was given in a most acceptable manner by Dick Reynolds and Harold Dunlap.

Scene three showed the minstrel first part with Charles Ator, George W. Imgrund, Wesley James, P. H. Griggs, Harry Obermeyer, Percy Cherry, M. W. Osborne and Charles Strawn as end men. Balladists, Robert Shoemaker, Albert F. Strauss and Byron Carpenter.

These were assisted by the following:

James Arnold, Karl Hill, Meyers Weber, Moe Meyer, Harold Gay, Turner Cully, Roy McPherson, B. F. Owen, Claude Cully, Harry Anderson, Jim Barnes, Edward Leonard, Louis Cain, Foster Shepherd, Ross Richardson, Charlie Joy and Harry Cain.

There followed in this part some good jokes, many of them of a local nature, by the end men which were interspersed with songs. Charles Strawn brought forth applause with a song entitled "Someone Else May Be There."

Byron Carpenter, who has been heard with pleasure by many Jacksonville audiences sang in an effective manner "Joan of Arc." Mr. Carpenter's voice was shown to good advantage in this number and he was given hearty applause.

"I'm All Bound Round With the Mason-Dixon Line" was given by George W. Imgrund. Mr. Imgrund used to be a ballad singer with a minstrel company years ago and trouped over the country. He gave his number a splendid rendition. Wesley James then sang "I Ain't Prepared." Mr. James got a great deal of comedy out of his number. Albert F. Strauss sang a pretty ballad, entitled, "I Called Her My Sweetheart." Mr. Strauss has been heard many times in this city and he appeared to splendid advantage in his number last evening.

Our old friend, Charles Ator, favored the audience with "Satin Away on the Henry Clay." Mr. Ator has lots of comedy and he gave it all to his auditors last night. Robert Shoemaker assisted by the company sang "Send Me Away With a Smile." Mr. Shoemaker possesses one of the best voices in this city of good vocalists and he was well received last night.

The minstrel part closed with "The Ragtime Regiment" by the end men and "The Stars and Strips" by the company.

In the second part the first scene was laid on the veranda of the Orange Grove Inn. The opening number was by Mrs. Harold Gay assisted by the guests. Miss Helen Leach and Robert Boyd then gave some songs in an acceptable manner and "The Story Book Ball," song and dance was given by Miss Helen Strandberg and guests. All of the numbers were given in an admirable manner and well received. Those taking the part of the guests were:

Misses Helen Strandberg, Lydia Hunt, Lauretta Piepenbring, Nell Clampt, Dean Obermeyer, Joy Bourn, Dorothy Weber, Sara Morton, Esther McCarty, Helen Morris, Zelda Benson, Helen Sorrels, and Mrs. Harold Gay; Messrs. Dick Reynolds, Jim Barnes, Myers Weber, Harold Dunlap, Byron Carpenter, Charlie Joy and Ross Richardson.

Scene two was a sketch entitled "The Hunting Season" with Walter Schragg and William Benson in the roles. Both these gentlemen are well known for their fun making ability and drew forth many laughs. Paul Watkins and Ross Harvey of the Bren company then appeared in an operatic travesty. Mr. Watkins is an actor of ability and recently has shown talent as a vocalist. They gave a skit that had much of mirth in it as well as some singing.

Scene four was entitled "Liberty Triumphant." It was splendidly done and the present time was most appropriate. "The Call to Arms" was sung by Miss Helen Strandberg representing the Army and Miss Dorothy Weber representing the Navy. They were assisted by the following:

Russia—Misses Harney, Piepenbring, Messrs. Weber, Joy Italy—Misses Obermeyer, Sorrels, Messrs. McPherson, Carpenter. France—Misses Benson, Morris, Messrs. Barnes, Hill. England—Misses Morton, Hunt, Messrs. Richardson, Gay. Ireland and Scotland—Misses McCarty, Bourn, Messrs. Dunlap, Reynolds.

Peace—Nell Clampt. Justice—Mrs. Harold Gay. Grand Finale—Liberty.

Carl Trent, 12 Years Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Trent Receives Wound in Neck from Rifle in the Hands of Owen Robbins—X-ray Examination at Passavant Hospital Showed Bullet Lodged in Right Lung—Condition Regarded as Serious—Other Alexander News.

Alexander, Nov. 26.—Carl Trent, 12 years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Trent residing north of Alexander is at Passavant hospital in Jacksonville in a serious condition as the result of an accidental gunshot wound in the neck.

The Trent boy in company with Owen Robbins and Albert Smith, two boys of about his age, went out on the farm of the Smith boy's father to look at some traps. The boys had a 22 calibre rifle and while walking along saw a squirrel. One of the boys gave Robbins a cartridge and told him to shoot the squirrel. Robbins put the cartridge in the chamber of the rifle when in some manner it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck young Trent in the neck directly under the chin.

He was taken to the Smith residence and Dr. Schott was called. After examination he brought the injured boy to Passavant hospital where Dr. F. A. Norris was called. Dr. Norris had an X-ray made of the injury and the bullet was located in the right lung. Owing to Trent's condition it was thought best not to operate in an attempt to remove the bullet. At last reports his condition was regarded as serious but unless complications arise he probably will recover.

THE KAISER'S DREAM.

Charles Cruse has supplied for publication the following taken from an eastern paper:

There's a story I'm told, the strange it may seem. How the Great Kaiser Bill had a wonderful dream.

He was dreaming of Allies as he lay in his bed.

When his dream switched about and he dreamed he was dead.

In a very fine coffin he was lying in state.

And thousands were there, the none mourned his fate.

His soul buzzed about and found to his cost.

That he and his soldiers were doomed to be lost.

He wouldn't believe it, so to Heaven went straight.

And, arrived at the portals, knocked loud at the gate;

"Hey, Peter, get busy, quick open the door.

See who's here. It's the Kaiser. Make everything roar.

Beat the drums, blow the horns, have a swell banquet made.

Tell Gott I have come and we'll have a parade."

Saint Peter looked out. Then, in voice loud and clear,

Said, "Try down below, Bill, you can't get in here."

"Tut, tut," said the Kaiser, "you're very unwell.

Don't probably know I'm a friend of the Devil.

And I'm going with pleasure." So he started to go.

A-whistling like blazes, to make a big show.

When he came to Hell's door he was filled with dismay.

For while waiting outside he overheard Satan say:—

"Look here, boys, take notice, I give you all warning.

I'm expecting the Kaiser down here in the morning.

But don't let him in, he'll start musing about;

So give him the ha! ha! and kick him right out."

"Oh, Satan, dear friend," the Kaiser then cried,

"Excuse me for listening while waiting outside.

But please let me in, for where else can I go?"

"Indeed," said the Devil, "I'm damned if I know."

"Ach, please let me in, for I'm feeling quite cold.

And if you want money I've plenty of gold;

Let me sit in a corner, no matter how hot."

"Nix, nein," said the Devil, "most certainly not.

You can't gain admittance by your offer of pelf.

Here are scythes and matches, make a Hell for yourself.

Don't skime, use them freely, for by dinner and blitz!

From his troublous sleep Bill awoke in a sweat

And said, "That's a dream I shall never forget.

That I won't get to Heaven I know very well.

But I never believed I'd be kicked out of Hell!"

The thieves killed all of the bees and secured a quantity of honey. However, in repairing the damage they did, the trustees discovered that there was more honey in the walls. Yesterday this honey was removed and totaled 250 pounds and was sold for the sum of $43, which will be placed to the credit of the church fund.

LITERBERRY ACTIVE FOR ARMY Y. M. C. A.

Campaign Was Enthusiastic One—School Children Gave Valuable Assistance—Baptist Church to Give Annual Supper—Other Literberry News.

Literberry, Nov. 26.—The Y. M. C. A. war fund campaign has closed with success and honor among our people. It has been a pleasure to work with them, for enthusiasm and patriotism were bubbling over at all points and the money came in by handfuls.

Our school children are a puzzle; the way they broke out on the Y. M. C. A. game, broke all precedents, and we are wondering if they were not abetted by Prof. Rochester and his able assistant, Miss Ruth McElor. These teachers gave the children to understand, that if they did not work for their part of the money or make some sacrifice, they could not claim any part in the work; this did not keep the children from subscribing about sixty five dollars. Now you can see children all over our town looking for jobs. There was never a time when yards and walks were so clean; leaves are being raked, brush burned, and it is no uncommon thing to see Prof. Rochester marching a file of boys, each armed with a hunking peg to the cornfield, on Saturday mornings. It pays to employ the man or woman who teaches fidelity, patriotism and industry all together.

Isaac N. Smith of Bath, an old time resident of the Smith neighborhood, passed thru Literberry Saturday, in company with Rev. Baxter Hale of the Bend, to attend the services at the Primitive Baptist church on the third Sunday of the month.

W. W. Young shipped two cars of hogs on Tuesday.

Arthur Chief of Clementsville, Ky. is visiting his wife's mother, Mrs. Jennie McFarland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Young of Maple Mound entertained about sixteen friends on Thursday evening at a six o'clock dinner.

Word has been received from G. T. Litter, who is taking a vacation. He is now at Vandala with his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Butler and family.

Preparations are being made for the annual Thanksgiving supper to be held in the basement of the Baptist church on Wednesday evening before Thanksgiving.

Our enterprising butcher, Mr. W. W. Young, has put a new light in his place of business which is a great success. The cutter, "Crane" can hit twice in the same place with his cleaver, while the manager, Mr. Jones, can tell a nickel from a penny by the feel. Some light this.

M. O. Smith of Crackers' Bend drove his Ford over to our town Saturday morning.

Aunt Mattie Hefiderson of "Cozy Corner" is making some fine calculations for future visits. Some people might say she was counting by chickens before they are hatched.

Aunt Mat received a letter from her children, Fred and Ethel, from Iantoe, Missouri, saying they were well and happy with plenty to eat, etc. Also that they had just finished making an excellent fish pond, and the government fish commission of Neosha, had furnished fish enough to stock it. The name given to this little lake is, "Lily View Fish Lake."

Aunt Mat and Uncle Jack have a standing invitation to go fishing on this new ground. We expect to see this nice old couple shoulder their tackle and start for Missouri the first warm days next spring.

Gay Hutson has returned from Detroit where he has been visiting for a number of weeks. He made the trip in his Mitchell auto in good shape. He says he left four inches of snow in Michigan and the mercury below zero.

ARMY AND NAVY Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITIES IN PARIS

Two Hotels Just Opened Provide All the Comforts of Home for Men on Leave—Secretaries Meet All Trains From Front.

Paris. — (Correspondence — The American Army and Navy Young Men's Christian Association is trying to make the American soldiers and sailors feel "at home" when he comes to Paris on leave. Two hotels, one for officers and the other for enlisted men, have been opened and provided with all the comforts of home and of a well regulated club.

Both hotels are convenient to the railroad stations at which the men will arrive from ports of landing and the front. Other hotels will be opened as may be required. Few men come to Paris on leave at present but provision has been made for the time when the American armies take their place on the fighting front and the men are given short furloughs from trench duty.

The Hotel du Pavillon is reserved for four hundred enlisted men, American ambulance men, soldiers, sailors and marines stationed in Paris are being housed there provisionally. They will give up their quarters when men begin coming to Paris on leave in large numbers.

Enjoy Rag-Time Airs.

A correspondent of The Associated Press recently found the large lounging room nearly filled with men in khaki, navy blue and the new pea-green uniforms of the marines. A boyish looking ambulance driver at the piano accompanied a quartet of two soldiers, a sailor and a marine singing "rag-time" airs. "Give us another," shouted a sailor and the crowd approved lustily and joined in the chorus. "Gee, that's a peach of a fox trot," commented a soldier as the music died down for the last encore.

"You Promised Mother a Letter. Write it now." "Why not send a 'Few Lines Home,' and other admonitions of like character on conspicuous signs were being obeyed by a number of boys around a large table in an adjoining room.

"Say, how do you spell Champs Elysees," pronounced it "Champs Eliza"), asked one soldier of the companion at his elbow. "Don't ask me," replied the other, "I've only been here two days. Why don't you go up and look at the map?" With the exception of interruptions such as these, the rooms were usually quiet.

A few boys were taking a late meal in one corner of the dining-room. "How do you like it here, boys?" asked a Young Men's Christian Association official. "Fine. Home was never like this," replied one of the group. Meals are served at virtually cost prices. Enlisted men can get well-furnished, steam-heated rooms for 60 cents a night.

Nightly Theatre Parties.

Association secretaries meet all trains from the front and ports of landing and show the men around Paris and Versailles in sight-seeing auto-buses. Theatre parties are arranged nightly and church parties leave the hotel for both Protestant and Catholic services each Sunday morning.

Accommodations for one hundred Army and Navy officers are provided at the Hotel Richmond. At this hotel meals are served by a committee of volunteer American women workers, headed by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and the men liked it so much that they fell automatically into the habit of tipping the waitresses. Word was tactfully passed around that this was superfluous and the Richmond has become the only "tipless hotel" in Paris.

A shopping bureau established here undertakes all sorts of purchases for officers from handkerchiefs to raincoats and gifts for wives, sweethearts, relatives and friends at home.

Two handsome lounging rooms furnished with heavy club furniture on the ground floor and an interior garden where tea is served each afternoon by American women are popular.

RED CROSS FUND FROM ZEPPELIN BOMB

London.—A farmer in a village in southeast England raised $1,000 for the Red Cross thru the agency of a Zeppelin bomb which fell in one of his fields. Thousands of people came from nearby towns to see the crater, which is described as "big enough to put a house in". The farmer charged each visitor a small admission fee, and turned the proceeds over to the local Red Cross.

SERG. RODGERS WRITES FROM CAMP DODGE

Waverly Soldier Tells How the Army Y. M. C. A. Conducts Its Affairs in Camp — Work Explained in Detail.

Ralph Rodgers, of Waverly, a nephew of Mayor Rodgers, is in training at Camp Dodge. In a recent letter to the Waverly Journal the young sergeant gives strong testimony about the good work of the army Y. M. C. A.

Camp Dodge, Ia., Nov. 14, 1917. I have noticed in the different papers that there is a big campaign on to raise $50,000,000 for Army Y. M. C. A. use. The money could not be spent to any better advantage for this reason—the Y. M. C. A. takes the place of home, church, school and entertainments, the lack of which would cause homesickness and would let the boys hunt other pastimes that would ruin the best of men.

I will try and give you an idea of what the Army Y. M. C. A. is like and the way they are carried on.

Here at Camp Dodge there are eight unit buildings, or in other words eight Y. M. C. A. buildings setting one-half mile apart. These are built in a kind of V shape. The long building is for all services and has chairs to take care of part of the crowd. There is a stage at one end of the building that is used for preaching, lectures and pleasure. Along the walls are long benches and shelves used for writing. Thru the day the chairs are piled up around the building so that the space may be used for walking, and gatherings of the boys to stand and talk. In the space between the two buildings is a counter where you can buy stamps and have mail to be sent out. (I might say here that they handle in each of these buildings from six to sixty sacks of mail each day.) So you see that the boys do appreciate what the folks at home have done for them in the way of a good place to spend their evenings.

You can also get any information you wish at this counter, also stationery and envelopes. They give out about 225,000 pieces per month (like I am using) this is all free, they charge for nothing only stamps. In the room on the other side of this hall are more shelves for writing, also a victrola, which is going most of the time. This is what they call the library or reading room. Each building has a library of between 1500 and 2000 books. The boys take them the same as they would at any public library.

Buildings are warm and well lighted, and the men who are in charge are very friendly, and more like one of the soldiers than a civilian. Each building has six men on the staff, as follows:

1. The Building Secretary, who acts as chairman.

2. Director of Religious Work. He has charge of the two services on Sunday and one on Wednesday night. He also organizes Bible classes in the different companies.

3. Director of Education. He conducts classes in French and English or any subject wanted. He also has charge of movies and lectures.

4. Director of Physical Work. He has charge of all outdoor and indoor sports. He organizes baseball and football, and other teams and coaches the teams. The Y. M. C. A. furnishes all materials for all sports.

5. Social Man. He has charge of all social and social programs, and picks the camp over for any talent that is here, for the stunt shows and entertainments.

6. General Assistant. Who is house manager.

These men live the same as we do. They get up at the same time we do and are at the Y. M. C. A. building until 11 p. m. These buildings are open from 6:30 a. m. till 6:30 p. m. to any man who wears a uniform, and those in charge will do anything in their power for the soldiers.

There is one general music director for all the buildings, who helps to increase all lines.

There is something doing in these buildings every night. On Sundays religious meetings (doors open to all speakers); Monday, movies; Tuesday social; Wednesday, religious; Thursday, lecture; Friday, movies; Saturday, stunt.

There is one big auditorium which seats about 4,000 which is used for all general meetings.

There is one administration building where the staff meetings are held, and all mail is handled there.

In a lecture the other night the speaker said that the Y. M. C. A. huts over the sea are on the front line trenches the same as in the rear, and they give the boys hot cocoa and hot tea just before they go into the trenches and that is what they get as they come out.

Will expect to see where Waverly has raised the full amount of their apportionment for this cause. I think that the $50,000,000 would be better spent for the Y. M. C. A. than to buy ammunition for this reason—if you take a bunch of down hearted men they won't do what a bunch of men would if they were cheered by something the folks at home have sent them, and that is one thing the Army Y. M. C. A. does.

The Waverly paper never looked as good to me as it does here.

Yours very truly,

Sergeant Ralph Rodgers,

Q. M. C. Camp Dodge, Iowa, care C. Q. M.

ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW OPENED YESTERDAY

Fine Exhibit of Birds This Year and Many Varieties—D. T. Heimlich is Judge and Will Begin Work This morning.

Traveling down East Morgan street one is greeted by a babel of sounds—quacks, gobbles and crows—which shows that the annual poultry show is on, and on in excellent shape. The ever reliable D. T. Heimlich is in charge and passes around among his pets with pardonable pride. The exhibit this year is quite good, comprising a large variety of fowls and all of very fine quality.

Among the leading pens are barred Plymouth Rocks, White Plymouth Rocks, Single Comb Rhode Island Reds, Buff Orpingtons, White Wyandottes, Black Langshans, White Leghorns, Black Orpingtons, Partridge Plymouth Rocks, a very fine pen of White Orpingtons, Partridge Cochins, Seabright Bantams, Buff Cochins Bantams, Black and White Cochins Bantams, Homing pigeons, Rouen ducks, Red Bourbon turkeys and other birds.

The quarters this year are very fine, being located in a portion of the Howard Zahn garage, well heated, well lighted, clean and in every way attractive. The exhibit is under full way and is attracting also a great many visitors. The judging will begin at 9 o'clock this morning and will be carried on thru to the end as rapidly as possible. All persons interested in the useful hen, the humble duck and the loud-mouthed goose and the homing pigeon will do well to visit the exhibit for it is one of which the county has good reason to be proud.

In poultry, as in everything else, it has been discovered that the best is the most profitable and when we remember that the chicken crop is worth more than the wheat or corn crop in this country we can readily see that it is of no small consequence.

JACKSONVILLE MAN GETS PLEASANT SURPRISE

"About 6 months ago my father was very sick with his stomach, which had been troubling him for several years. Three doctors said he had cancer and one said it was gall stones—all agreed an operation necessary, but on account of his age I was afraid to risk it. I told a friend about it who said his wife had been through the same trouble and had been cured by taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I at once bought a bottle for father and he is now as strong as a bear and can eat more ham and cabbage than any 3 men. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Cover & Shreve East Side drug store. —Adv.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Few people realize that over 350,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually in making Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and these herbs all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their medicinal properties are at their best. The watchword in preparing these herbs is cleanliness, the process of percolation is perfect. All utensils and tanks are sterilized and the medicine is pasteurized, clarified and filtered before it is bottled for the consumer. It is this wonderful combination of herbs, together with the skill and care used in the preparation, which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.—Adv.

PEACE NOW WOULD BE WORLD CALAMITY

This was the Opinion Expressed By F. B. Madden in Patriotic Sermon at Grace Church Sunday—Services Wears of Impressive Character—Tribute Paid to Soldiers of Congregation Now in Service.

Germany has received no vital hints today and for the purpose of aggressive warfare her resources are larger now than ever. For the war has been one grand expedition of looting. She has stripped Belgium, Northern France, Poland, Serbia and Roumania of everything—money, harvests, machinery, art and all forms of property. The vast quantity of coal used has been taken from the mines of France and the petroleum from Roumania.

"The war has cost England $20,000,000,000; France $20,000,000,000 and the U. S. $10,000,000,000 and they have nothing to show for it. It is estimated to have cost Germany $20,000,000,000 and her indemnities, imposed and collected, and her loot are said to be worth $40,000,000,000. So Germany is ahead half of this sum. And now she is asking to loot Italy. She dominates a vast empire from the North Sea to the Russian Gulf and her population of 67,500,000 in 1914 is now more than 75,000,000.

Peace Would Be World Calamity. "To make peace now would be a victory for Germany—the greatest victory in history. If with an area of 208,000 square miles of territory and a population of 77,000,000 the world cannot defeat her, what could she not do with the territory and population she now controls? Peace now would be a world calamity. There cannot be peace until the cancer of German militarism has been cut clean from the German body politic.

Ten weeks ago Italy notified the Allies that General Cadorna was without shells and her munition factories closed for lack of coal. Twenty ship loads of American coal would have set her factories going and saved "a battle as important as Waterloo—that was not lost, just thrown away." These are a few of the startling facts that Rev. F. B. Madden gave, when, in his patriotic sermon at Grace church Sunday he referred to the present status of the world war.

Record congregations attended the service. The special music was most excellent. Misses Berryman and Boyce and Messrs. Watkins and Shoemaker sang "America, the Beautiful" and Miss Margaret Scribner of Illinois Woman's College, sang "A Dream of Paradise." In the evening Miss Elva Brown sang "There is a Land" by Crownshield and the chorus sang "Radiant Morn."

A large and beautiful Service Flag containing 26 blue stars on a white field with a red border, hung in the front of the auditorium on the west side of the organ. The Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack were crossed across the service flag and on the west side of it were draped the flag of Italy and Russia while on the east side were the flags of France and Belgium. On the red border in large white letters were the words "Service Flag." Each Star Represented a Grace church "soldier boy." Mr. Madden asked all in the congregation who had a relative

"under the colors" to stand and fully one third of the large audience stood. Then he asked every one to stand while he read the names on the Honor Roll, and then the congregation sang America.

This tribute to the soldier boys and their relatives was most tender and impressive. Mr. Madden asked that a copy of the Bulletin containing the Honor Roll should be sent to each man whose name appeared thereon.

There love and reason chafe Though love repine and reason chafe. There comes a voice without reply. There man's perdition to be safe. When for the truth he ought to die.—Emerson.

"Our Soldier Boys" include the names of students who were members of our Sunday School or congregation and of some others who enlisted outside of Morgan County but who are members of Grace Church or whose families are.

Kaiser's Dream of World Empire. The Kaiser's Dream of a World Empire was Mr. Madden's morning theme. He said in part:

"This war really began in a conference in the Potsdam palace in 1892. In a pamphlet distributed by the Kaiser, he said: 'The Pan-German Empire: Now Hamburg on the North Sea to the Persian Gulf. Our immediate goal 250,000,000 people. Our ultimate goal the Germanization of all the world.' In explanation of his purpose the Kaiser said: 'From childhood I have been under the influence of five men, Alexander, Julius Caesar, Theodor H. Frederic, The Great and Napoleon. Each of these men dreamed a dream of world empire—they failed. I am dreaming of a German world empire and my mailed fist shall succeed.'"

"The Kaiser printed two maps one he headed 'The Roman Empire' with all the great states captured and their capitals—Athens, Ephesus, Jerusalem, Alexandria, Carthage—reduced to county seat towns, paying tribute to Rome. He also printed another world map with Berlin the capital; and by 1915, St. Petersburg, Paris and London were to be county seat towns, subdued provinces of Germany—Washington and Ottawa were to follow with the word 'Germania' stamped on the United States and Canada.

"This is why," said Mr. Madden, "the Kaiser told Ambassador Gerard 'After this war, I shall not stand any nonsense from the United States.'"

"It also sheds light on the statement of the German Admiral to Admiral Dewey at the battle of Manila Bay that in twelve years the German navy would blow up New York City and impose an indemnity of a billion dollars upon the United States. Only the British navy that swept the German pirates from the seas and keeps the German navy bottled up in the Kiel has blocked the Kaiser in his game and saved us.

"It is no longer a mere European issue. It is a world issue and unless we put our All into the contest and as the Allies say: 'Standfast, Ye Free', the world will not be a safe place for Democracy."

"Speaking of the 'New Darwinism' of Prussian military philosophy Mr. Madden read the following letter, printed in the Scotsman and reprinted in the Literary Digest of Aug. 18, 1917, as a tribute to a popular exposition of this doctrine. The letter was written by a Prussian school girl to a girl friend in Switzerland.

Frankfort-on-Order, 29th July, 1916.

My Dear Louise: The contents of your last letter would have hurt me had not I known that your thoughts of our glorious war resulted from sheer ignorance.

"You are in a country rendered effeminate by the influence of old-fashioned ideas of liberty, a country which is at least two centuries behind ours. You are in need of a good dose of Prussian culture.

"It is evident that you, a Swiss girl, with your French sympathies, cannot understand how my heart, the heart of a young German girl, passionately desired this war. Speaking of it some years ago my father said to us: 'Children, Germany is getting too small for us; we shall have to go to France again in order to find more room.' Is it our fault if France will not understand that more money and land are necessary for us?"

"And you reproach us that our soldiers have been very cruel to the Belgian babies, and speak also of the destruction of Rheims, and of the burning of villages and towns. Well, that is war. As in every other undertaking, we are past masters in the making of war.

"You have a great deal to learn before you can come up to our standard, and I can assure you that what has been done so far is a mere bagatelle compared with what will follow.

"As a matter of fact, there is but one race worthy of ruling the world, and which has already attained the highest degree of civilization. That race is ours, the Prussians; for the we Germans in general are the lords of the world, the Prussian is undoubtedly the lord par excellence among the Germans.

"All other nations, and among them unfortunately, the Swiss, are degenerate and of inferior worth. That is why I have always been so proud of being a true Prussian.

"Yesterday, again, our pastor explained to us convincingly that our first parents, Adam and Eve, were also Prussians. That is quite easy to understand, because the Bible tells us that the German God created us all after his own image. If, then, all men are descended from Adam and Eve, it follows that only Prussians, or at least Germans, ought to exist in the world, and that all who push on and prosper ought to belong to us. You must admit that this is logic, and that is why our motto is, 'God with us, Germany above everything.'"

"You ought to know why we wished this war. It is not shameful that other nations, who have no right to existence on the earth, wish to diminish our Heritage! We are the divine fruit, and the others are only weeds. That is why our Great Emperor has decided to put an end to all these injustices and to exterminate the weeds. To you understand that now?"

I remain, your school friend, Katie Hamel.
(Daughter of the State Council of Architecture.)

"Since the 'weeds' will not exterminate themselves, the Germans are doing so, in a most efficient way, and it is this we object to," said the speaker.

In closing he quoted the words of Christ, "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword," and said: Call the roll of the world's buccanniers and pirates, who, with dreams of world empire in their heads and with weapons in their hands, have gone forth to butcher and conquer, and you will find that soon or late they and their empires "perished with the sword." And this latest and most brutal military butcher will meet his Waterloo and reach his Saint Helena.

"As God lives, and the moral order of the universe continues, this cruel, conscienceless monster, who has deluged a continent in innocent blood and kindled the lurid fires of this world war must not and shall not rule the world."

In the evening discourse, Mr. Madden cited the testimony of photographs, diaries of German soldiers and documented evidence to prove that under the personal instructions of the Kaiser this is the most brutal of wars.

LINCOLN DIVISION.

Or the National Army at Camp Taylor—No Fortnights for Thanksgiving Time.

Camp Taylor, Ky., Nov. 24.—The 84th division of the national army at Camp Taylor has been named the Lincoln division in honor of Abraham Lincoln, who lived in Illinois, sojourning for a time in Indiana, and was born in Kentucky. The three states who have given their sons to make up this division.

For some time Major General Hale and his staff officers have looked about for an appropriate name to characterize this fine body of fighting men. Some one suggested the Lincoln division. The name was taken up by Lieut. Col. Laurence Halstead, chief of staff, and has now been officially adopted.

When the boys from Illinois, Kentucky and Indiana go into the trenches alongside their French and British comrades, they will be hailed as the men of the Lincoln division. The men from Springfield—Lincoln's own home town, feel especially honored in the adoption of his name as they have urged it all along.

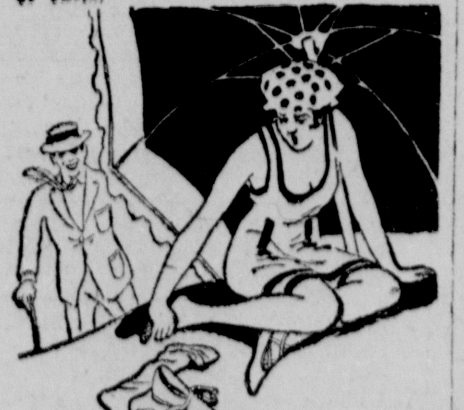

The base hospital has about 70 cases of measles, and five hundred patients, with other diseases. The number is one of the lowest of any division of the national army. A number of rejections of men afflicted with tuberculosis are to be announced soon. Thanksgiving week beginning tomorrow, will be marked by a large number of entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. buildings, in which Illinois will share, and by numerous dinners for the men in Louisville homes. Many of the companies will have turkey and all the trimmings, to be paid for out of their company funds. No one will be permitted to go home unless some extraordinary circumstance demands his presence at home.

Lloyd Hiser of Joy Prairie was added to the list of city arrivals yesterday.

NORTHMINSTER CHURCH WENT "OVER THE TOP"

In the Greatest Rally in Its History Members Raise Over $5,500—Wipe out Debt with Something to Spare—Services Thruout Day were of Inspiring Nature.

The great day for Northminster church is history and surely it was a red letter occasion: "Over the top" they went with a whirl and away on the other side so that the good pastor and wife and all officers and friends of the organization are wearing a smile that will not come off. In his sick room at the hospital the pastor kept his hand on the key and while unable to write or work himself he dictated to his faithful amanuensis and helper and her assistants and they more than carried out his orders. They scoured the field and interviewed all who seemed likely to give and many who seemed unlikely, and then came the day for the grand result.

Sunday school was shortened and along with prayers and hymns dollars were in the air, but they were dollars for the great Master, the Head of the church and the cause was worthy. The hour for morning worship came and along with it two fathers in Christianity, Dr. A. B. Morey and Dr. P. M. Rule. The music partook of the grand enthusiasm of the day and everything seemed propitious for the cause. Dr. Morey led in the opening of the services and the pastor's greetings were read as follows: "First he asked all to read Philippians 1:3-11 as part of his message and added:

Pastor Spoons' Letter.
"He that saveth his life shall lose it and he that loseth his life for My sake shall find it."
"Those who live only for themselves live five lives, but those who stand to give themselves and of their means for the advancement of things greater than themselves find a larger life than the one they would have surrendered."

"I find proof that man was made in the image of his Creator in the fact that in all ages man has been willing to give and sacrifice that blessings denied to him might be enjoyed by his children and his neighbor's children."

Dr. Rule then took charge and like an experienced and dauntless general conducted the rally. Dollars rolled in in response to the gentleman's appeal and at the end of the services a goodly sum has been realized. The goal was not announced and $4,700 seemed away off but faith saw the final triumph.

Afternoon Services.
Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of Westminster church presided. The music was excellent. Of his remarks and those of the other speakers only a very few thoughts are presented. Mr. Landis said in brief:

"I trusted you would be thru with your great effort so I might tender you my hearty congratulations. I do bring you the greetings of a sister church and congratulate you on your effort and shall rejoice with you in your success. This church has a grand opportunity to cultivate a community spirit and it has done so very well. Here is a place where friends meet friends and where social pleasures are enjoyed. The fellowship of your pastor and his people is beautiful and I pray the times may grow stronger as the years go by."

Rev. J. Latham, pastor of Unity church, Woodson: "I am here partly to repay a visit made by Brother Spoons to my church when we were trying to raise funds for our work. You will be able indeed to shout Glory when your great work is accomplished. These are days when sacrifice is called for. As yet our land has not been called on to make any genuine sacrifice but many brave men are ready or are getting ready to go to the front and risk all for the cause of democracy and righteousness. I congratulate you on this fine church and excellent equipment and your worthy pastor. I was much pleased with the address which appeared in the Journal Friday morning regarding this grand work and those participating in it. You should thank God for the privilege of doing the work in hand today. It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Rev. Wilson Urges Continued Effort.
Rev. R. B. Wilson, pastor State Street church: "I bring you my personal greetings and those of the session of my church. If we carry on Christ's work we must be winners of souls. We have not all had the experience of the young man born blind as narrated in the 9th of John. He could say 'whereas I was blind now I can see.' I must warn you of a possible danger in being out of debt. If you fail to work as you should it will be a calamity. I am glad this church has an evangelistic spirit. You have that kind of a pastor and he carries the gospel here at home and to all around. Literature and poetry will not save souls; preach Christ and Him crucified; be soul winners. An illiterate youth wandered into a large bible class; he was ignorant and not prepossessing but Mr. Kimball, the teacher, followed the boy, talked to him about his soul and he was converted; his name was D. L. Moody, a man who moved much of the world. If you fail to look to the cross you will fail altogether. Only the evangelistic church is the Church of Christ."

Evening Service.
Again the people gathered for the final word and again Dr. Rule and Dr. Morey were on hand, and again the devoted rally was on and again did Dr. Rule marshal the forces and the people had a mind to give and when the final announcement was made the total was $5,545.47. Truly could the people sing with a will, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

When the church was built it was necessary to buy the house and lot immediately east of the parsonage. Mr. Spoons with his own hands mostly built the garage and printing office above it and the surplus will come within $600 of wiping out that debt too, and they mean to do it by new year.

Notes.
Conspicuous in front of the choir loft was a portrait of the sainted Mr. Kelly, the devoted missionary to whom the exiles owed their conversion under God, and their removal to a land of freedom.

The gold watch promised the girl who would raise the most money was won by Vivian Vieira, who handed in $136.25.

It would be a pleasure to mention the names of those who were faithful in the work, but it is hardly deemed best to attempt to list some of the omitted. The Journal will mention the pastor and his devoted and capable wife who wrought so valiantly and successfully and inspired others with her zeal, faith and enthusiasm, and Dr. F. M. Rule who certainly showed the qualities of a general in the absence of the pastor.

In summing up it is simple justice to add another comment. Credit is due many who labored most devotedly and to add that underlying it all is the grand feeling between pastor, friends and people. Mr. Spoons has lived with and for his congregation; he has mingled with them freely; has shared their joys and their sorrows; their pleasures and their pains; at the fireside, on the street, in the office, in the field, in the shop, at all places he has, like the apostle, been all things to all men. He is perfectly at home wherever you put him and it is largely due to this that the people have rallied around him and in work, in giving, in singing, in praying and in all things it has been with him, come with me, not go on ahead. He is much respected by many who are not affiliated with any church and some who do not even attend church at all and he can count on many such as his friends.

RED CROSS SHOP NOTES
Those who happened in the Red Cross Shop Monday were impressed by the splendid shipment of knitted goods which was packed and ready to go to Central Division Headquarters, Chicago. It represented what had been received since Nov. 13th and was by far the biggest and finest shipment yet made.

The sweaters were large, well knitted, comfortable and warm garments. The socks were uniformly splendid—all made according to Red Cross standards—loosely knitted, seamless socks with double heels and comfortable toes. No sock is sent out from the local shop that is not perfect in every respect. The wristlets, helmets and scarfs were all equally good.

One was impressed by the amount of energy and good work which the women of Morgan county are putting into Red Cross knitting. The shipment included 212 sweaters, 259 pairs of socks, 84 pairs of wristlets, 30 helmets, and 24 mufflers.

The knitting committee wishes to remind those who want their names to go in garments to new them in securely with yarn. There is then no danger of their being lost.

CITY EMPLOYEES WILL GET INCREASE IN SALARIES

FIVE DOLLARS A MONTH ADDED BY COUNCIL AT SESSION MONDAY.

Action Came as Result of Ten Dollar Increase Proposal for Police and Fire Departments—Lack of Revenue Plea for Compromise Measure—Water Crisis Again Looms Up—Unless Rain Comes this Week Will See Creek and Lake Empty.

The city council at the regular session Monday morning went on record in favor of a horizontal increase of $5 a month in pay for all city employees effective as of Nov. 1, 1917. This action was taken as the result of a resolution filed by Commissioner Martin providing for an increase of $10 a month for men in the police and fire departments and $15 a month increase for the chief of police and the chief of the fire department.

A somewhat animated discussion followed the presentation of the resolution as all the other council members insisted after Mr. Martin had brought up the matter that any increase should affect the employees in all departments. During this discussion Mr. Martin withdrew from the session and was not present when the compromise was agreed upon.

Cities Need More Revenue.
Mayor Rodgers was opposed to an increase of $10 a month at the present time as he sees no way at hand for the city to increase its revenue and thus meet the larger expense. He emphasized the fact that by the present arrangement of the city borrowing money to provide for each monthly payroll, that city employees have in reality had a wage increase equal on an average to $5 a month because they are not now compelled to discount their warrants as they had been in the past.

The mayor also made reference to the endeavor which is now being made by cities all over the state in favor of the passage of a law making it possible for a city to levy a greater amount of taxes to meet its running expenses. The law now provides that taxes for general purposes may be levied at the rate of $1.20 per $100 of valuation and the proposed law would give city councils authority to levy a $2 tax instead of $1.20. At the last session of the legislature the League of Municipalities and the executives of various cities acting separately used their influence for the passage of this law. It was finally placed upon the statute books with a clause reciting that before any such increase is made that the matter must be referred to the voters at an election. This change, it is said, was made at the suggestion of a member of the senate from Peoria and had the effect of killing the measure.

Chicago Wants New Law.
Now it is said that a great many cities previously not much interested in the matter are very anxious to see such a law passed. Chicago lost revenue of $600,000 a year by the recent closing of a great many saloons and there, as in smaller cities, the cost of running municipal affairs has increased steadily so that Chicago is now interested in the proposed law which will make it possible to increase revenues. Mayor Rodgers mentioned that cities are finding that the cost of coal and other expenses have grown to such an extent that nearly all municipal treasuries are empty, whether the cities are wet or dry.

After the council was called to order and the minutes had been read, Commissioner Cox mentioned some thing work which had been done near the west side reservoir and referred also to some needed work by the street railway company in keeping streets passable this winter. He said that complaint had been made about the condition of the east end of East State street and that the pavement on South Main street is obstructed near the curb, in such a way that water, if rain comes, cannot flow into the sewers. Mayor Rodgers said that the railway company had a vast amount of work on hand, was having difficulty in securing labor and that he thought the matter could be satisfactorily cared for at no distant date.

Mr. Cox also mentioned that the Snyder Ice & Fuel Co. had ignored the city's order to remove a fence which it is claimed is now obstructing the highway. Other members of the council called the attention of Mr. Cox to the fact that he has full authority over the street and that the power is his to have the fence removed.

Mr. Martin reported that the matter of obstructed view at the northeast corner of Illinois college campus had been referred to the grounds committee of the board of trustees but no report had been made. He stated also that the Washab railroad continued to promise to change the power house at the Church street crossing so that there is less obstruction to the view but also kept delaying the work. It is quite likely that the Washab management has in mind that it will be an opportune time to move the power house when the new street pavement is laid on Church street.

Water Crisis is Near.
Mr. Vasconcellos reported that some additional supply of water is being secured from the two test wells at the north side station but not a great amount. He reported also that unless rain comes this week will see the last of the water in Morgan lake and Mauvaisterre creek. The lake is now practically pumped dry. The snow which fell Monday when it melts will give some little flow of water but this will be insignificant in amount.

Commissioner Martin then presented a resolution providing that the pay of men in the fire department shall be increased $10; the fire chief $15 and for increase in the police department as follows: plain clothes men $5, other patrolmen, $10, chief $15. He stated that he had been promising the men for some time that he would put this matter up to the council and because he realized that with present living costs an increase in wages was really necessary. He said that he had spoken to no members about it and it was entirely up to the council to take what action they thought best.

Mr. Widmayer, wit ha second by Mr. Martin, made a motion that the resolution be adopted. Then came discussion in which Mr. Cox and Mr. Vasconcellos protested warmly that there should be no increases unless the employees of all departments were included.

Warrant Shaving Discussed.
Then Mayor Rodgers made a statement in which he said that he was entirely in favor of the increase of $10 a month if the city could find a way of meeting the obligation, but somebody would have to point out to him the way in which such an increase could be met. He then referred to the fact that thru the arrangement made by the city council city employees have readily received their monthly pay and had not been compelled to discount warrants. The mayor then made a suggestion that the pay of men be increased $5 a month and if later it is possible to increase the city's revenue, to give another increase. Mr. Martin insisted on a vote on his resolution and it was adopted. Mr. Vasconcellos and Mayor Rodgers voting no. Mr. Martin and Mr. Widmayer yes.

The motion to increase all the employees $5 a month was then made by Mr. Vasconcellos and was carried by unanimous vote. This does not apply to the city engineer, the collector in the water department and possibly one or two other employees who have already had some increase in pay. Mr. Vasconcellos said he would like to see an increase of $10 a month given to R. L. Pyatt, city clerk, but it was not deemed wise to make any exception to the $5 horizontal plan.

In presenting the resolution for increased pay, Mr. Martin stated that the record would show that by certain changes he had made in the fire and police departments that they are being operated at a saving of between $2,000 and $4,000 a year by comparison with former years.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PEOPLE

MADE CANVASS

Sunday was the day set apart by Central Christian church for the every member canvass and the results of the day's solicitation were very satisfactory. Members of the various teams met at the church at noon for luncheon, served by the Pastoral Helpers, and at 2 o'clock the men started out on their visitation rounds. In a few cases the teams were unable to cover the entire territory assigned to them, and the work will be completed at a later date.

The services at Central Christian church Sunday were of an inspiring kind, the attendance at both morning and evening services being exceptionally large.

CRIMINAL HEARINGS BEGIN IN CIRCUIT COURT

William Keys Convicted on Burglary and Larceny Charge—Trial of Lloyd Hare Under Way—Judge Smith Enters Docket Orders in Several Cases.

The trial of criminal cases began in the circuit court Monday with Judge Smith presiding. A jury trial resulted in the conviction of Samuel Keys, who is charged with burglary and larceny. W. L. Armstrong is the attorney for the defendant. A jury was secured for the trial of Lloyd Hare just before adjournment and evidence will be presented today.

In the case of Harry Clark State Attorney Robinson accepted the plea of assault with a deadly weapon. Judge Smith fined Clark $100 and costs.

The case of Jack Reynolds for assault with intent to kill was dismissed by the state's attorney with leave to reinstate. It is understood that the state's principal witness is not now available and this fact caused the state's action.

Samuel Keys, who is charged with burglary and larceny, is the man who stole a quantity of meat from Samuel Challiner in the Joy Prairie neighborhood. The jury fixed the value of the meat at $88.90. The defendant was represented by W. L. Armstrong. The jury which heard this case included John Oliver, B. D. Green, J. T. Ellis, Frank Green, A. G. Leedy, R. D. Meggins, Joseph Lindsey, Marion Self, Roy Van Gundy, J. P. Yeck, Scott Tranbarger and Frank Goveia. As stated the evidence will be presented in the case of Lloyd Hare, who is charged with burglarizing the stand at Nichols park. TELEGRAPH SCHOOL SOON TO OPEN HERE

Legal Men Patriotically Agree to Give Instruction Without Charge—Government Greatly Needs Telegraph Operators.

The committee in charge of the government telegraph school which is to be established in Jacksonville met at the Ayers Bank Building Monday afternoon. President C. H. Rammelkamp of Illinois college presided and read several communications he had received from the war department.

Superintendent H. A. Perrin of the local schools was present and said that the telegraph school might be held in conjunction with other night schools which he is now organizing.

Mayor Rodgers said that John J. Reeva of the Chamber of Commerce had informed him that the Chamber of Commerce would be glad to have the school held in their rooms and patriotically offered their quarters without charge. The offer was accepted by the committee.

Organization Effected.
A permanent organization was formed with Dr. Rammelkamp, chairman and J. S. Findley of the Y. M. C. A., appointed secretary. Mayor Rodgers and Superintendent Perrin will act as an advisory board and give all the assistance they can to the cause.

It was decided that only men that are registered under the present draft would be eligible to membership in the school, and Secretary Findley will be glad to meet any of the registered men who wish to take the course.

Joseph L. Pine of the Western Union Telegraph Company, Karl Murphy, of the E. B. Conover Grain Company and Walter DeShara, Associated Press operator with the Journal Co., will act as instructors. Mr. Pine and Mr. Murphy having charge of the night school while Mr. DeShara will have charge of the day school.

Men Needed for Signal Corps.
Miller Weir of the exemption board as invited to attend the meeting but was not able to do so. The committee however, will ask the exemption board to appoint one of their members to work in conjunction with the committee.

Dr. Rammelkamp would like to have all the young men who are registered attend the school as it will fit them for the signal corps. This branch of the service is in great need of men, especially Morse operators.

Dr. Rammelkamp has so arranged matters that there will be absolutely no cost to those who wish to take the course, as all the members of the committee and the instructors have donated their services. All the committee asks is that those signing up for the course give a few nights or afternoons each week to practice.

The following have announced their intention of taking up the course:

Frank D. Kelly, Roy Goodrick, E. J. Christopher, Vol Sevier, John Larson, Richard D. Smith, Donald McLaren, George Coe, Otto Smith, E. H. Sheppard, Warren A. Becker, Carl E. Newport, Charles Souza, Fred Johnson and Clifford Standberg.

Application blanks can be secured from Dr. Rammelkamp, Illinois College, J. L. Pine, Western Union Telegraph company, J. S. Findley, Y. M. C. A., or W. H. DeShara at Journal Office. These blanks will be ready in a few days.

J. P. JOHNSON HERE FROM CAMP TAYLOR

J. P. Johnson, manager of the Douglas hotel until he was sent to the Morgan county contingent to Camp Taylor, is on furlough for a brief stay in the city. Mr. Johnson is a sergeant clerk in the quartermaster's department, serving under Lieut. Col. Patton. A separate office is maintained for the camp quartermaster and for the division quartermaster and Mr. Johnson is in the camp division and will probably remain there after the soldiers now in training are sent to the front.

There is a vast amount of clerical work in the office, as can readily be understood when it is remembered that more than 30,000 men are quartered at Camp Taylor. The government sends for frequent reports, as the statistical statements sent out from Washington are based on figures furnished by the various quartermasters' departments in the several camps throughout the country. Mr. Johnson has had years of experience in bookkeeping and record work, which serves to qualify him for his present position.
